Highlights of this Edition

The following are some of the important update features of the 2015 edition of PPC's 1040 Deskbook:

- Same-sex Marriage. The Obergefell decision issued by the Supreme Court has made same-sex marriage legal in all states. The Deskbook has been updated for this decision, including planning tips.
- Healthcare Premium Assistance Credit (Premium Tax Credit). Taxpayers that meet a certain income level and enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) through the individual market of a state insurance marketplace (i.e., a state exchange) may be eligible for the premium tax credit to help cover the cost of insurance. The key issue for this topic has been enhanced and expanded, including a discussion on repaying excess advance payments.
- Individual Shared Responsibility Penalty (ISRP). Taxpayers are required to carry a minimum level of health insurance or be subject to a penalty. The Deskbook has been updated to reflect the latest provisions of the ISRP, including discussion of the requirement to obtain Form 1095-A, 1095-B, or 1095-C as proof that minimum insurance has been obtained.
- Change in Accounting Methods. The IRS issued new guidelines for reporting a change in accounting methods (both automatic and non-automatic changes) with the issuance of Revenue Procedures 2015-13 and 2015-14. These provisions were further modified with additional revenue procedures. The Deskbook has been updated to reflect the new provisions, as well as to caution that a new version of Form 3115 (Application for Change in Accounting Method) will be issued.
- Legislative Changes. Tax provisions were included in several legislative actions, including the Surface Transportation and Veterans Health Care Choice Improvement Act of 2015, the Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) Act of 2014, the Trade Preference Extension Act of 2015, and the Trade Priorities and Accountability Act of 2015. The Deskbook has been updated to include these new provisions, including changes to tax return due dates, ineligibility of certain expatriates to claim the child tax credit, and the creation of the new ABLE accounts for creating tax-free trusts to cover expenses of disabled individuals.
- Expiring Tax Provisions. Numerous favorable tax provisions expired at the end of 2014, including the increased Section 179 deduction, educator expenses, tuition and fees deduction, certain depreciation provisions, and the ability to make a tax-free direct IRA rollover to a charitable organization. The Deskbook notes these expiring provisions and the likelihood of these provisions being extended to 2015.
